AKTIIV

Anantaa Aktiiv Foods & Beverages is a premium, organic-forward brand crafted for people who want clean, functional nutrition without compromising on taste. From protein-rich crackers and wholesome ready-to-eat soups to refreshing rose-infused beverages, every product is designed to fuel daily vitality with pure, real ingredients.

We work closely with organic farmers, including our own rose farm, to ensure ethical sourcing and uncompromised quality. By choosing certified organic ingredients and sustainable practices, we create foods and beverages that are as honest as they are delicious.

At Anantaa Aktiiv, our mission is simple: to bring you clean, convenient, and flavorful nourishment that supports both your well-being and the farming communities that make it possible.

HIGH PROTEIN CRACKERS

Thoughtfully crafted with high-quality, organic ingredients, our protein-enriched crackers offer a refined balance of nourishment and flavor. Each bite delivers sustained energy through plant-based proteins and slow-release carbohydrates, making them a sophisticated choice for individuals seeking better blood sugar support and mindful weight management.

Light, crisp, and elegantly seasoned, these crackers are designed as a modern, health-forward alternative to conventional snacking—perfect for consumers who value purity, performance, and exceptional taste in every moment.

01 Sea Salt & Chilli Lime

A crisp, elegant blend of mineral-rich sea salt, subtle heat, and a bright twist of lime. Crafted with organic, protein-rich ingredients, these crackers deliver a refined, zesty snap perfect for elevated, modern snacking.

02 Cheese & Pepper

A bold yet elegant pairing of sharp, creamy cheese and freshly cracked black pepper. Crafted with organic, protein-rich ingredients, these crackers deliver a smooth richness lifted by a clean, peppery bite—an elevated classic for modern, discerning snackers.

03

Garlic & Parmesan

A rich, savory blend of slow-roasted garlic and aged Parmesan, crafted to deliver a refined, indulgent crunch. Made with organic, protein-forward ingredients, these crackers offer a warm, nutty depth and a smooth umami finish—perfect for sophisticated, everyday snacking.

HIGH PROTEIN SOUPS

Our ready-to-eat, protein-enriched soups are thoughtfully crafted as a meal supplement for diabetics, individuals pursuing weight loss, and those managing lifestyle diseases. Made with clean, organic raw ingredients and free from added sugars, refined carbohydrates, and artificial additives, each soup supports steady energy, improved satiety, and better blood sugar balance. Slow-cooked vegetables, high-fiber legumes, and plant-based proteins come together to create a nutrient-dense bowl designed to nourish without burdening the body—ideal for daily metabolic support.

Developed for those who want convenience without compromising their health goals, our soups offer a wholesome, satisfying alternative to heavily processed meals. Their high protein content assists in weight management, while their low-glycemic, clean-label profile makes them suitable for people living with diabetes and other lifestyle-related conditions. Whether enjoyed as a complete meal replacement or a nourishing supplement, our soups bring together purity, functionality, and exceptional flavor, making better nutrition effortless and enjoyable.

Minestrone Vegetables

Experience the richness of Italy in our Minestrone Soup, crafted with organic vegetables, protein-enriched legumes, and aromatic herbs simmered in a vibrant tomato broth. Each spoonful delivers hearty texture and clean, authentic Mediterranean flavor. Designed for global health-focused consumers, this ready-to-eat soup offers balanced nutrition, high protein, and clean ingredients—making it a wholesome meal supplement ideal for diabetics, weight-management goals, and anyone seeking healthier lifestyle choices.

02

Yellow Lentil Soup

Our Lentil Soup brings together organic lentils, slow-cooked vegetables, and delicate herbs to create a warm, hearty, protein-rich bowl. Clean, nourishing, and naturally flavorful, it serves as a wholesome meal supplement—ideal for diabetics, weight management, and those seeking healthier options for lifestyle wellness.

Classic Tomato Soup

Our Classic Tomato Soup is crafted from ripe, organic tomatoes blended with gentle herbs to create a smooth, vibrant, and comforting bowl. Naturally rich in antioxidants and clean ingredients, it offers a light yet satisfying flavor profile. High in nutrients and lower in calories, it serves as a wholesome meal supplement—well suited for diabetics, weight-conscious consumers, and anyone seeking healthier choices that support overall lifestyle wellness.
